

How Not to Waste Your Youth

Do you wonder why some adults seem to have so much more success than others? Often it is because they did not waste their youth. They got focused early on the right things so that, like Benjamin Franklin, their total life was brimming with get-ahead advantage and influence. Here are some tips on how to plan your adolescent years for maximum progress, avoiding years spent in merely doing figure 8s with your time and your money. This is written for Christian parents of junior high and high schoolers or for a direct read by adolescents themselves. It is a treasure trove of wake-up ideas that can make a stand out difference in a young adults future life. A quick read--to gain a lasting edge.
